McVicar Corrects Typo in Filing Certificates

McVicar Industries Inc. ("McVicar" or the "Company") reports the re-filing of form 52-109FV1 Certification of Annual Filings Venture Issuer Basic Certificate as the certificates filed on April 15, 2010 incorrectly refer to Jite Technologies Inc. as the issuer in paragraph 1 and that the wording in the form title has been modified and that the introductory paragraph of the "Note to reader" does not refer to "for non-venture issuers." These typographical errors have been corrected with the re-filing of the certificates and can be found on www.sedar.com.

Jite Technologies Inc. is a subsidiary of McVicar Industries Inc.
