

I so protest this regulatory change, the only reason I can see that someone would want this is so "big brother" can know more about us. I am sick and tired of the government interfering in the lives of Canadians. It is none of anyone's business what I make, what I invest in. what my net worth is. I pay my taxes each year to support the "xxxx" in the government.

Debbra Hutton