

Dear Mr. Stevenson

I recieved a letter informing me of changes in securities policies. i don't feel that i will be comfotable with sharing all the information that was mentioned.(net worth, assets, liabilities, risk tolorange, ect.) The info i got from www.rrp-info.ca says that they are tring to streamline and harmonize the system. I 'm not thinking this is stream lineing my investments at all, and feel it is an invation of my privacy.

Thanks Tim Ward
