

When is the government going to stop interfering and meddling in the private affairs of the citizens of this country ?. How I invest my hard earned money is none of your business. I look at the taxes we pay to all levels of government each year as a form of squandered investments . Do not adopt the proposed regulatory changes regarding investments, Yours Truly Guy Belland