

05/20/2008

I have just received notification that CSA is proposing a change in the security policies, and I feel that it is not required because it invades my privacy I do not wish to show my financial statements when investing for buying land.